From the Pastor's Desk

My good friends,

There in the photo we see two of my favorite friends and parishioners—Loco and the ever-faithful Matt Kelly. Both of them are in the Kingdom of Love now. There's a poem entitled "rainbow bridge". It imagines a place after death where we are greeted by even the puppies and kittens that we enjoyed here on earth. I wonder if Matt was met by Loco (after Matt embraced his parents, friends, Bill Schoefer and all the other daily communicants of this parish whom I believe are all enjoying God's "shalom".)

Matt passed away while living in retirement in Florida. Here in Blessed Sacrament we feel badly that nobody even called to let us know. God bless John Schretzman for always looking out for all his friends no matter where they are! John told us about Matt when he finally heard the news.

I would ask that, when you hear of a friend or parishioner who is in need, gone into a nursing home, got married, moved, or has finally moved into "heaven" that you let us know. We can't read minds.

OK, here's to a great year in school. Here in the rectory, we are all so happy that our outstanding school is back in action. God give all our students, Catholic and Public School, a great year.

—Fr. Frank

Other special summer memories: Sara, the bride, had once served as our rectory receptionist. Her mom, Nelly, sings in our 12:45 choir, and her sister Dianna is a regular at our 8:45am mass. And Richard is holding his 'girl's hand. Janine grew up here in Cypress Hills and attended Blessed Sacrament School. Richard wanted to surprise Janine by asking for her hand in marriage in her girlhood church...last Saturday. These are a few more memories of a great summer. Thank you Jesus!

!Arise! After each Mass today, members of the Evangelization Team will be distributing sign-up slips for participation in the "Arise" Evangelization Program. You will be given the opportunity to choose what time is best for you. For further information, please see Sister Alice.

Del Escritorio del Pastor

Mis Buenos amigos,

En la foto se ve a dos buenos amigos, Matt y Loco. Algo me dice que cuando Matt subió al 'reino de amor' el día de su muerte, después de besar a sus padres y amigos, mi Loco le dio un abrazo grande. Yo creo que, para la Buena gente como Matt Kelly quienes asisten misa todos los días, la recompensa para los fieles cristianos (shalom) les espera. Matt, que descances en paz.

Lamentablemente, Matt decidió vivir sus últimos años en Florida. Cuando él murió, nadie nos dijo nada. Solo su buen amigo John Schretzman—nuestro Americano que ama la comida dominicana! - nos informó inmediatamente.

Por eso, amigos, les pido que cuando alguien se enferma, o se ha casado, o se muda para un asilo de ancianos, o muere...favor de decir algo a nosotros. Nosotros no podemos leer tus pensamientos!!

Bueno, pedimos que Jesús, fuente de toda sabiduría, nos bendiga a nuestra escuela católica Blessed Sacrament, con un año bello. Para todos los estudiantes de nuestra escuela católica o de las escuelas públicas, que se sienta ahora y todo el año ese deseo profundo de aprender!

—Padre Frank

Otras memorias de un verano especial: Sara, la novia, había servido como nuestra recepcionista cuando era un teenager. Y Richard tiene su mano en la mano de su fiancée Janine. Aunque se mudaron hace muchos años para Long Island, Richard quiso pedir su mano en matrimonio aquí en la iglesia de su niñez.

Gracias, Señor, por un verano muy lindo!

¡Levántate! Después de cada Misa, miembros del Comité de la Evangelización van a distribuir un informe para que cada persona haga su compromiso para participar en el Programa de Evangelización, "Levántate". Para más detalles favor hablar con la Hna. Alicia.
